Leadership & Soft Skills Training

Leadership and Soft Skills Training inspiring development is a specialist management consulting company for SME banks and microfinance institutions (MFIs) operating in developing countries and emerging markets. We offer a spectrum of tailored services to effect change in an institution when it matters.

At our inspiring training course in Nairobi, Kenya, we deliver relevant, industry-specific, dedicated training for micro and MSME banking professionals. We develop competencies, build capacity, share best practices and create opportunities for peer exchange throughout the sector across Africa. Participants gain insights, skills and tools to support their institutions in becoming more successful, efficient and sustainable.

Our training courses are open to all and delivered by two of our experienced expert trainers who deliver content and develop skills through experiential learning methods to a small group of participants.
